

Mowzer's Song

We are your toys on the stormy, dangerous sea.

We toss and turn on the waves.

Please be kind to us and let us travel safely on.

Rest now, be calm and close your eyes.

Oh Great Storm Cat, rest, relax, be calm.

We are just fishermen and mean you no harm.

You topple us with your great paws.

And blow us from our path.

You play with us like a little mouse.

We fear your perilous games.

Oh Great Storm Cat, rest, relax, be calm.

We are just fishermen and mean you no harm.

Go to sleep now and rest as you hear my lullaby.

Snuggle down, warm and cosy.

Settle down as I sing you my song.

Feel the waves turn to stillness and slumber...
